

Don't miss this special opportunity!

Contact me, a licensed insurance agent. I'll see if you are still eligible for Medicaid and CHIP.

Are you losing Medicaid coverage? You may be able to reapply for Medicaid if you meet the qualifications below. Losing Medicaid eligibility to reapply is a 60 day window. We can help you reapply if:

- Lost qualifying health coverage
- You received a notification letter in the mail from your state notifying loss of coverage. This letter will inform you if you need to complete a renewal form or to recertify.
- If you no longer qualify for Medicaid, this will open a SEP to enroll in a marketplace plan, you may qualify for a tax credit (APTC).
- If you have moved or permanently changed your home address, you may qualify for a Special Enrollment Period (SEP).

Contact us today to see if you're eligible for Medicaid Renewal.
